

I am very much opposed to changing current FCC regulations that prevent cross-ownership of newspapers and broadcast stations in the same area. We have already lost democratic vitality through the massive consolidation of print media and broadcast media into a handful of corporations. Do not exacerbate this very real threat to American freedoms by allowing further consolidation and monopolistic control. I am truly very worried about this proposed change and the effect it will have over time on our country.